

IDAHO

2025 STATEWIDE

FARM STAND DIRECTORY

Farm stands are local, direct-to-consumer markets where you can buy fresh produce, artisan goods, and seasonal items straight from Idaho's farmers, ranchers, and crafters. This includes (and is not limited to) traditional farm stands offering fresh produce, ranch stands with meats and other products from local ranchers, creameries selling dairy delights straight from the farm, and self-serve kiosks where you can pick up fresh goods at your convenience. Each of these provides a unique opportunity to buy directly from Idaho producers. Farm stands operate primarily from early spring through late fall, aligning with Idaho's growing seasons. This guide helps you pinpoint where to find farm stands throughout the year.

This directory was created by the ISDA's Idaho Preferred program, and is an ever-evolving resource for discovering Idaho's farm stands. We compile and update this information to make it easy for you to experience local agriculture and enjoy the freshest products available. Whether you're a local resident or a visitor, use this guide to plan your seasonal shopping and support Idaho's agricultural community.
